CORPORATE EVENT PLANNING WITH CROSSROADS SHOOTING SPORTS

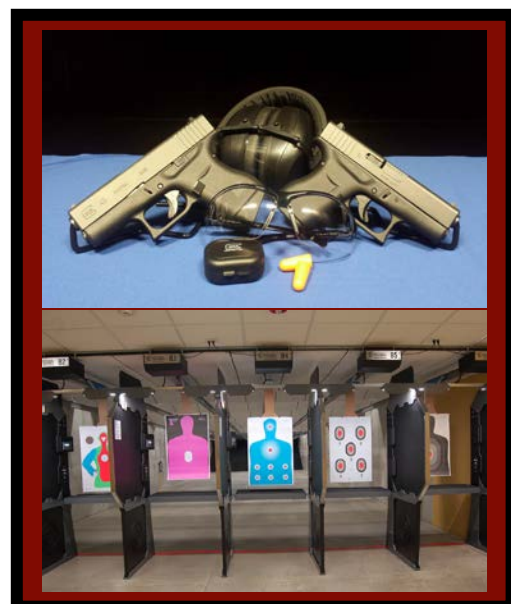

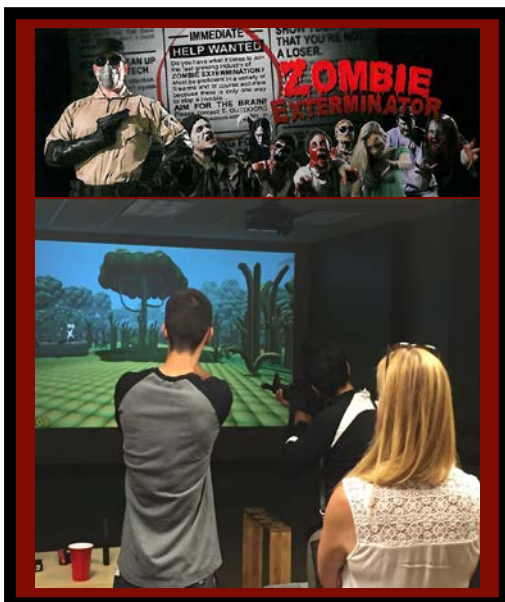

Tired of attending the same boring team building events for work? If you have been in the corporate world for a while, you have probably seen it all: never-ending company bowling, obstacle courses, scavenger hunts, sporting events, and dinners. The list goes on. And for entertaining customers and industry partners, the list is even more mundane.

Are you ready to try something new? CrossRoads Shooting Sports in Johnston offers options that will engage and entertain every member of your team & client base with options for mid and executive levels, sales force, customer and vendor/partner appreciation, and more.

Our facilities are modern and contemporary, 5 Star industry rated, and exceed all safety standards. At CrossRoads Shooting Sports, events and shooting activities build concentration, confidence and discipline, all while reinforcing your company values and building morale.

Offering both non-firearm simulator & live-fire range options, we can assist you with communicating accurately, working through details and participating in a high-performance work environment - talents and characteristics organizations can spend years cultivating.

Want to take it a step further?

Whether you want a unique internally focused experience or customer/partner event, a personalized package will be assembled to suit your needs for groups from 5 to 50 for meeting, meals and activity based entertainment.

Meeting space includes:

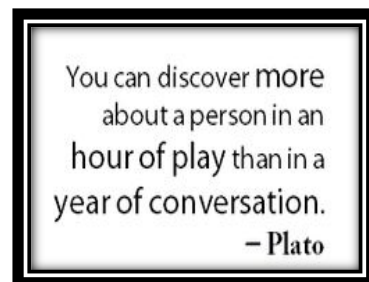

- Meeting & Conference space for 6-50 w/ projection & Wi-Fi
- Pantry access for serving/hosting meals/snacks
- Available in 2hr, 4hr, or 8-hour time blocks

The Ultimate Access – A Capstone to the time at CrossRoads will be a fun-filled event in the shooting range. Our event hosting includes an overview of the fundamentals of shooting, a safety briefing, and team building exercises, all culminating in a fun-spirited marksmanship style competition. With safety as the pinnacle, your group will face challenges like never before- whether it's a first or a fiftieth time - our range activity will encourage, motivate and certainly not disappoint! When you book a team building event with us, we will take care of all of the details, providing everything your team needs.

Your reservation will include -

- exclusive access to reserved lanes
- personalized instruction from certified staff member
- all necessary safety equipment, firearms and consumables

Whether you are looking for an off-site hosting space for your next conference or want to plan an original team building event for your staff, CrossRoads Shooting Sports has you covered!
